

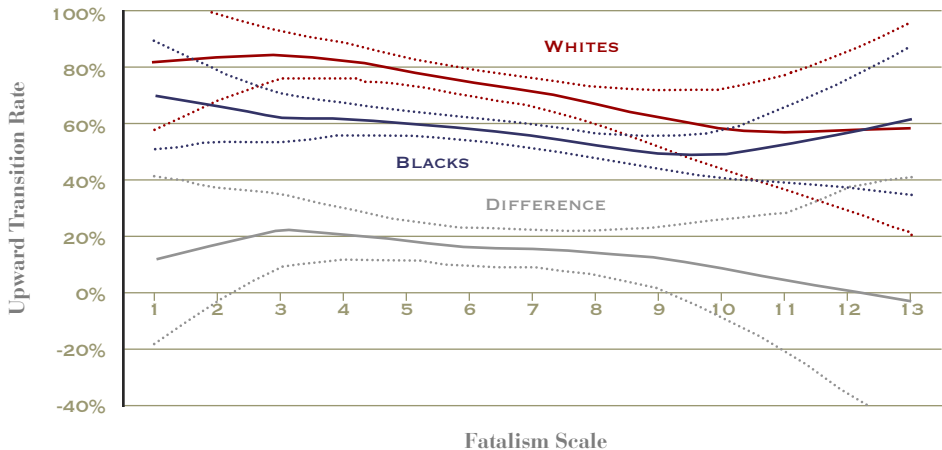

FIGURE 15

Percent of Children Moving Up and Out of the Bottom Quintile, Conditional on Fatalism Scale, by Race

Note: The dotted lines flanking each solid line represent the 95% confidence bands around the estimates. These “bands” reflect the uncertainty associated with the estimates. In other words, the narrower the range, the greater the precision of the solid line, and vice versa.